

Harriet Tubman

Harriet Tubman was a slave she was born in 1820. She married John Tubman when she was 25. She ran away because she was going to get sold. She found herself in Canada and she became a free woman there. Then she travelled back to help her family. When she did she next set off to free John but he had married someone else. She soon married Nelson David. She is famous for freeing about 300 people who were slaves

