

Dear Parents/Carers

On Sunday the 5th of November 2023 on Barney's Field (the field behind school) we are holding our annual Bonfire and Fireworks evening.

Sparklers are NOT allowed under any circumstances.

Parking arrangements will be confirmed closer to the date.

The event opens at 6.00pm. The bonfire will be lit at 6.30pm and fireworks will start at 7.00pm.

This is a ticketed event, which will need to be purchased in advance, and shown on entrance to the car park and the entrance to Barney's Field.

We are giving our school family first opportunity to buy tickets, including our family ticket (which will not be on offer when the tickets go online). A family ticket is for parents/carers and the children in their family.

Extra tickets for relatives can be bought at the same time. Children are the responsibility of the adults who bring them and they will need to be with you at all times.

This event is held in a field, the field and surrounding area, will have uneven ground, holes, and may be slippery, it will be dark with limited lighting bring a torch.
